

CONCLUDING REQUEST TO THE PROTECTORS

All you myriad protectors of the unseen world
From all times and places,
Who cherish and care for sentient beings,
Please come here and accept this gift of tormā.

Bestow on us health and well-being,
Long life and a wholesome existence.
Let us enjoy harmonious families and true friends,
Finding genuine connection, communication, and love.

Spare us from obstacles and afflictions,
From injury, illness, and untimely death,
And from dehumanizing circumstances,
So that our lives may flourish and benefit all.

Let us pursue the path with integrity,
Practice with whole and inspired hearts,
Experience the wonders of the vajra world,
And attain the boon of liberation.

Please bring blessing to this suffering world,
Most to those who feel hopeless and in black despair.
Quell famine, plague, and the ravages of war,
So that all may find peace and great fulfillment.

This was written by Reginald A. Ray.